

OUR IMPACT

Stages Theatre is an all-access pass to theatre arts & education!

114,134 Participants
reached all year - a testament to how deeply STC's work
resonates in the community.

Career Preparedness

Our Teen Programs give hands-on training and real-world skills, culminating in a showcase that prepares the next generation of theatre leaders.

290+ Performances
each brings stories to life and creates unforgettable moments.

Commitment to Accessibility

This year, we expanded accessibility by hiring a full-time Access Coordinator and doubling C.A.S.T. programs, opening theatre to more young people
of all abilities.

Broadening Reach

From Big Fork to Saint Paul, our programs are reaching further than ever before, giving more students exposure to the power of theatre.

IN 2025:

TESTIMONIALS

A GRANDPARENT IN THE AUDIENCE:

"Our family has loved STC for years. This season drew everyone, from toddlers to adults, laughing, marveling at young talent, and sharing unforgettable theatre moments across generations."

HEAR FROM A TEEN:

"The BIPOC Arts Mentorship helped me discover my artistic interests and understand what it takes to be an artist. Through cohort meetings, I gained professional skills, financial literacy, and how to thoughtfully represent my art. I connected with diverse young artists, learned about different paths in the field, and realized that creating meaningful theatrical work is a collaborative effort."

CLASSES FOR YOUNG LEARNERS:

"My 3-year-old started classes this fall, and his creativity, confidence, and problem-solving skills have soared! STC has fostered a lifelong love of theatre, and we'll definitely be back. The teachers are kind, patient, and genuinely supportive. We highly recommend Stages Theatre's education classes!"

PROUD TO BE ACCESSIBLE:

"I'm so grateful for the Pay-What-You-Can performances. They've allowed my 5- and 7-year-olds to fall in love with theatre. I'm also encouraging my sister to bring my nephew, who has autism and physical disabilities, to a sensory-friendly show, knowing he'll be supported. STC makes theatre accessible to every child."
